

1. In many African countries, where AIDS is at epidemic levels (see _____ /AIDS in Africa), sex education is seen by most scientists as a vital public health strategy.

a. Human Immunodeficiency Virus b. Hiv c. Human T-cell Leukemia Virus-1

Answer: Hiv

2. In many African countries, where _____ is at epidemic levels (see HIV/ _____ in Africa), sex education is seen by most scientists as a vital public health strategy.

a. Aids b. Acting c. Attempt d. Aid

Answer: Aids

3. In 1999, the _____ government introduced Sex and Relationships Education guidance, with particular focus on sexually transmitted diseases and teenage pregnancy.

a. Childbirth b. Labour c. Calving d. Brooding

Answer: Labour

4. [15] For example, whilst _____ primary schools were protested by Muslim parents opposing the introduction of LGBT content to the guidance,[16] sociologist Jonathan Glazzard criticized the Department for Education for the document's ambiguity and "opt-out" potential.

a. Huntsville b. Decatur c. Gadsden d. Birmingham

Answer: Birmingham